

California Information Sharing Disclosure

California Civil Code 1798.115(c), 1798.130(a)(5)(c), 1798.130(c), and 1798.140 indicates that companies should disclose whether the following categories of information are collected, "sold," or transferred for an organization's "business purpose" as those terms are defined under California law. You can find details about the information that we collect from California residents in the chart below. Note that while a category may be marked that does not necessarily mean that we have information in that category about you.

If you are a California resident you have the right to ask (1) that we grant you access to the personal information that we have about you, (2) that we delete the personal information that we collected from you, and (3) that we not sell your personal information to third parties.

We do not discriminate against California consumers who exercise any of their rights described in this policy. If you would like more information concerning the categories of personal information (if any) we share with third parties or affiliates for those parties to use for direct marketing please submit a written request to us using the information below.

Note that, as required by law, we will require you to prove your identity. We may conduct an identity verification by phone call or email. Depending on your request, we will ask for information such as your full name, email address, and postal address to process a removal request or right to know request. Postie will send a validation email to the provided email with a link that must be clicked to verify the individual. This email will also contain details about the request process. Following a request, we will use reasonable efforts to supply, correct or delete personal information about you in our files.

In certain circumstances we may not be able to honor your access or deletion request.

You can submit a request for access, deletion, or to opt-out of the sale of your information by contacting us at the following:

Via email: info@postie.com

Via telephone: 855-931-2869

Online: optout.postie.com/ccpa_data.html and optout.postie.com/ccpa_delete.html

Authorized Agent

You may use an authorized agent to submit a request to access your information, delete your information, or opt out of the sale of your information. To designate an agent for these purposes:

1. You must provide us with a copy of a written and signed permission given to your authorized agent; and
2. You must verify your own identity directly with us.
